Prologue

A half-moon glowed on smooth granite boulders, turning them silver. Yowls of fear and death rose in the air. A pale ginger cat threw herself off of a giant rock onto a dark gray tom warrior. The dark gray tom yowled in pain and anger as the pale ginger she bit into his right shoulder. Rookpelt swerved and flung Gingerstar off of him, his dark gray shoulder dripping with blood.

Gingerstar got up and glared at Rookpelt "I will not let you steal prey from my territory" Gingerstar hissed in fury. "Who said I even stepped foot in your territory?" Rookpelt snarled back. "I watched you pass my border and start to hunt, I will not let this happen again or let you leave without punishment" the she-cat hissed before she leaped to attack Rookpelt. Gingerstar landed on the tom's back unsheathing her claws into his pelt, Rookpelt yowled in pain and flung the pale ginger she onto her back biting her shoulder. Gingerstar raked at his stomach, making Rookpelt release her.

Gingerstar jumped up to her paws ready to pounce, but she stopped when she heard something calling out to them. She looked over to see who was speaking but wasn't able to make out what it was. "What is going on here?" A tom's voice shouted. Gingerstar saw a red tabby tom appear out of the fog. She recognized Marigoldstar the leader of Oakclan "Will one of you explain why you two fighting", The tom demanded.

"I caught one of your warriors hunting within my borders" Gingerstar spoke at last. "Is this true Rookpelt" Marigoldstar asked "This so-called leader of Brackenclan is making up lies, I never stepped foot into her territory and there is no proof if I did" Rookpelt explained in frustration. The red tabby turned to Gingerstar "Is what Rookpelt says true?" "No it isn't and I do have proof" Gingerstar protested, "While on patrol with some warriors, I saw what looked like a cat coming from your territory, I went to figure out who or what it was and once I got closer I saw Rookpelt hunting, if that's not enough he left his scent in the area and a piece of the fresh kill he caught!" Gingerstar explained.

As Marigoldstar opened his mouth to speak, a brown tom with amber eyes appeared out of the bushes. "Gingerstar are you okay I smelled Oakclan in our territory" the brown tom mewed gasping for air, " yes, I'm fine Bramblepaw you dont need to worry." the pale ginger she-cat turned her head to Marigoldstar "I told you Rookpelt was in my territory even one of my apprentices scented it" she meowed, "Very well then, Rookpelt as your punishment you are no longer allowed to leave the camp which means you will be helping out the elders." Marigoldstar meowed. The red tom dipped his head in respect to Gingerstar "This will not happen again" he promised.

I have high hopes for this story and hope you like it. I might not update often because school is very stressful, but I promise to do my best :D

The dark brown tabby woke up with a jolt "Geez Bramblepaw why so jumpy" Bramblepaw looked up to see a long-haired white she-cat standing above him. "What do you need Campionpaw? " Bramblepaw meowed trying to get up. "Gingerstar said we could go on the dawn patrol with Swannose and Gingerclaw so get up and let's go. They are waiting on us." she mewed walking toward the two warriors. Bramblepaw sighed hoping he could sleep for a little longer but he had to follow his leader's orders, he got up shook the extra leaves clinging to his fur, and padded over to the waiting cats. "Before we go, me and Gingerclaw are going to train you two after patrolling the border is that okay with you two" a white tom meowed. Bramblepaw and Campionpaw looked at each other with excited looks "Of course it's okay!" both of them shouted with delight towards Swannose.

Once the four cats got done with their patrol Bramblepaw went with his mentor Swannose, and Campionpaw went with her mentor Gingerclaw and split up to open areas to train. As Swannose led the way to the training hollow Bramblepaw scented a couple of mice in the area, but he couldn't stop to hunt now he was too excited to start training. It's been 2 moons since he became an apprentice but he wasn't able to train because the twolegs kept entering the forest with their dogs and it kept his mentor and all the other warriors too busy to train their apprentices.

A couple of paw steps later they got to the hollow, Bramblepaw was shaking in joy wondering what Swannose was going to do first. "Before we start there are rules" Swannose began, "While training you will keep your claws sheathed and under no circumstances will you use your teeth to bite, understood" "Yes sir, I will do everything you ask me to do and will not break the rules" Bramblepaw promised ready to become the best warrior he could be. "Very well then, show me what you can do " Swannose was eager to see what Bramblepaw was able to do. It's been about a moon since Bramblepaw started training himself while he was too busy with the clan and twolegs to train the brown tom.

Bramblepaw crouched to the forest floor getting ready to pounce. Swannose was preparing for Bramblepaws attack but before he could get ready Bramblepaw pounced towards him with paws stretched out, but before he knew it Bramblepaw crashed onto the ground "I'm impressed by the speed you put into your attack but you were still to slow and even though you caught me off track I could still see what you were going to do" Swannose meowed a little impressed. "Watch what I do and try to dodge" Swannose got into position to pounce Bramblepaw was surprised, Swannose flung himself at the brown tom so fast Bramblepaw couldn't take in what happened.

Next thing he knew the white tom was on his back Bramblepaw rolled onto his back to get Swannose off of him. Swannose jumped up to his paws only to see Bramblepaw in front of him sliding his paw across the white tom's throat. "Very good Bramblepaw I'm impressed but I think that's all I can do for today" Swannose mewed Bramblepaw nodded and they headed back to camp.

Once they got back to the camp Bramblepaw ran through the gorse tunnel to see if Campionpaw was back. But Bramblepaw wasn't expecting a meeting to be in place. Bramblepaw and Swannose walked over to the other cats to see what was going on. "Twolegs have trespassed in our forest with monsters bigger than before, huge fornt claws knocking trees down and lifting the remains and taking them away to be cut down" Gingerstar froze for a little bit her eyes filled with sadness "They are heading this way-" "What about the other clans are they okay and if they are heading this way then what about fourtrees" a small voice cried out. Gingerstar looked down at a small red spotted tabby tom "Fourtrees is no more" Gingerstar tried to look and sound strong but she just couldn't help herself to the sadness she felt.

Bramblepaws eyes widened in fear "if twolegs were capable of destroying fourtrees then there is no telling what they could to the camp" Bramblepaw thought trembling in fear "What Are we going to do" Bramblepaw's voice trembled in fear. "I'm going to speak to the other clan leaders and find out what we're going to do next" Gingerstar went on "I need Yellowblaze, Swannose, Gingerclaw, Bramblepaw, and Campionpaw" When Bramblepaw heard his name he couldn't tell if he should be happy or scared. "Clan dismissed." Gingerstar jumped off the high rock and padded to the gorse tunnel. The chosen cats looked at each other wondering what was going to happen then padded to Gingerstar and left.

Bramblepaw looked around recognizing the area they were in. "I guess we are heading to Feildclan first, Rowanstar is known to be difficult to talk to especially when it comes to talking with other clans" Bramblepaw thought smelling the strong scent of Feildclan. "What are you doing on our territory" hissed a short-haired caramel tom " Hello Falconfoot I need to talk with Rowanstar it is very urgent" Gingerstar dipped her head in respect "If it's about twolegs then I will let you talk" Falconfoot's voice died down in fear "Twolegs have been invading our territory breaking down trees and digging huge holes." the tom went on kneading the ground with his front paws "Im worried that they will find the camp and destroy it all with the whole clan in it" Falconfoot stopped as if he were imagining the whole thing. "Rowanstar says we will be fine but I know that's not true, she is just as scared as I am. If you are here to convince her to leave then I will let you speak to her" "I thought the same and that is why I'm here I need to convince all the clans to leave the forest and find a new home if we stay we will all die" Gingerstar looked at Feildclans deputy with sympathy in her eyes.

The caramel deputy sighed and flicked his tail signaling for the six Bracken clan cats to follow him to his camp. The seven of them trudged towards the camp, Falconfoot left the Bracken clan cats at the entrance of the camp and headed towards his leader. Bramblepaw could smell fear and blood around the camp. He knew things weren't going well for Feild clan. He wish he could help them but he knew Rowanstar wouldn't let him. Before Bramblepaw could finish his thought, Falconfoot trotted over to them with Roswanstar behind him. "Falconfoot said you wanted to talk so what is it." Rowanstar said with her usual rude tone. "As much as I hate to bring this up we need to discuss the twolegs." Gingerstar dipped her head in respect towards Rowanstar.

"If you think we are weak we aren't! My clan and I are fully capable of taking care of ourselves!" Rowanstar hissed. Falconfoot got worried and backed up from his leader and went over to help the apprentices with the elders. Gingerstar sighed "That is not what we are saying Rowanstar. We are fully aware that you are strong but your camp is in danger." Gingerstar hesitated. "Fourtrees is no more.. Twolegs have dug everything up and is now coming for my clan. Im afraid they will dig up all of the forest and I need your help to leave." Rowanstar nodded. "I understand. I agree we need to leave but we also need to warn everyone else." Bramblepaw was shocked he didn't expect the Field clan leader would agree so quickly. "Will you get some of your trusted cats and go to Sea clan and tell Heatherstar everything. I'll go to Oak clan and tell Marigoldstar." Gingerstar hoped Rowanstar to agree. To her luck the black and red, mackerel tortoiseshell she nodded and walked into her camp grabbing four of her best warriors. Gingerstar flicked her tail and the six of them left for Oak clan.

this took way to much time 😓 I hope you enjoyed it though!

"This is so boring, I thought this would be fun." Bramblepaw thought waiting for his leader to come back from talking to Marigoldstar. Swannose noticed Bramblepaw's change in emotions "just a little longer I promise." Swannose bumped into the small apprentice playfully. Bramblepaw sighed. He felt like he might die of boredom if he waited a second longer.

Soon after, Gingerstar emerged from the gorse tunnel a smile on her face. "Marigoldstar agreed and is rounding up all his cats." The she meowed. A wave of relief washed over the 5 cats "Now it's up to Rowanstar to do her part in convincing Seaclan. In the meantime we shall gather fresh kill to feed the elders and kits so the have enough energy to travel." Gingerstar flicked her tail and the six cats hurried back to their clan.

Bramblepaw crouched down in the hunting position mouth slightly open sniffing the air for a mouse or bird.

(It's 3:28 am 😴 I promise to remember to come back so don't worry.)
